

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE AND WEST BRANCH FARMER

A journeyman Watchmaker
WANTED in Lewisburg by
A. L. HATFIELD.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

The Albany Argus considers the Brandreth Pills well worthy the confidence of the public. That the principle on which they cure disease is the same as that of Leroy of Paris and Suredaux of Germany. That all the variety of disease proceed from, or are nearly allied to disorders of the stomach and bowels, and that by using those remedies which restore to health those important organs the disease will vanish. The Brandreth medicines profess to carry out this important principle. We have heard them strongly recommended.

NERVOUS HEADACHE.

Book Agents and Colporteurs will please to observe.

EVERY citizen of the United States should possess a copy of these works. They are the Books of Our Country.

1776—A Faithful Chronicle of the War of American Independence. In one large volume, $10. Illustrated with Seventy Engravings in handsome gilt binding. Price 25 and 35 cents per volume.

NEW VOLUME OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

To Lectors, Mechanics, and Artisans.

The Publishers of the Scientific American, in returning their thanks to the community for the liberal support and encouragement which has been extended to them during the past four years, would respectfully give notice that the 1st number of Volume 5, will be issued on the 23d of September, affording a favorable opportunity for those who wish to avail themselves of the valuable information always found in its columns. The new volume will be commenced with new type, printed on extra fine paper, manufactured especially for this publication, and embellished with elegant illustrations, and published with the shade and elegant border. It will be published in two volumes, the first thus affording at the end of the year a beautiful book of over 400 pages, containing between 5 and 600 original engravings of new inventions, described by letters of reference, besides a great amount of reading matter valuable to every man in the country.

An increased amount of care and expense will be bestowed upon this volume, to render it more wondrous than it has heretofore. "The best Mechanical Paper in the World." Its columns are now filled with the most reliable and correct information in regard to the progress of Scientific and Mechanical improvements, Chemistry, Architecture, Botany, Manufactures, Rail-Road intelligence, and the weekly List of Patents, prepared expressly for this Journal at the Patent Office in Washington.

As an evidence of the estimation in which this publication is held by the Scientific and Mechanical portion of the community, it is only necessary to state, that its circulation has increased within the last three years to upwards of 10,000 copies, already exceeding the united circulation of all the Mechanical and Scientific publications in this country, and the largest of any single one in the world.

1777—The Reference Edition of the same work, in 3 volumes, large 8vo, without portraits. Price $7.50. This edition is for reference, and intended for Statesmen, Legislators, Members of City Corporations, Lawyers, and Individuals holding public Offices.

The Republic of the United States, and its Political Institutions.

Reviewed and Examined. By ALEXIS DE TOQUEVILLE, Member of the Institute of France, and the Chamber of Deputies, &c.

In one large octavo volume of nearly One Thousand pages. Price $1.

The 12 Stars of our Republic, Containing the lives of our Presidents, the Signers of the Declaration, Articles of Confederation, the Constitution, with an historical sketch of the American Union. Illustrated with elegant portraits, engraved on steel, and illuminated pictures of the Signers, the Capitol and President's House at Washington, Bunker-Hill, &c. &c. Elegantly bound. Gilt edges. Price $3.

No expense has been spared in the preparation of these volumes of Documents, History, and Statistics, to render the same worthy of patronage, not only of Statesmen and Legislators, but of the American public generally; who will find in them the TRUTH of POLITICAL KNOWLEDGE, and a mass of information.
